Cambodia

Cambodia, it is Phnom Penh a capital full of charm and charged with history, it is also the North East and its very beautiful landscapes of countryside, its vestiges which go from the time pre-Angkoriène, like Vat Nokor, in the colonial era ... and, of course, Angkor is also the hallucinatory spectacle, a dream of stone that arose here in the heart of the tropical forest that assails it; incessant struggle of men with nature to save the testimony of the genius of the Khmer people.

... a country of innumerable wealth

Cambodia is also a people who has suffered a lot and whose renewed serenity is only matched by the kindness they show to foreign visitors.

Days 1 : Siam Reap – Bantaey Chhmar - Battambang

(250km/ 5h of road)

Departure for Banteay Chhmar through the typical landscapes of the Cambodian countryside, small stops in traditional villages with houses on stilts. Banteay Chhmar was built in the twelfth century, under the reign of Jayavarman VII. In the center of this ancient city still buried in the jungle, is one of the largest monasteries in the Angkorian period whose sumptuous sandstone reliefs have defied time despite human influences. Continue to Battambang. Night at the hotel.

Included meals: lunch and dinner.

Days 2 : Battambang

(35km/ 1h of road)

This charming city has preserved the characteristic architecture of the provincial capitals of the former Indochina, alternating colonial districts, Chinese compartments grouped around the market and wooden Khmer houses, perched on high stilts and surrounded by orchards. Ascent of the Phnom Banon hill, whose sanctuaries (twelfth and thirteenth centuries) are one of the hotspots of Khmer identity. Road to the temple of Vat Ek Phnom (12th century), buried in lush vegetation. On the way, stop at the Vat Sla Ket pagoda, residence of the Venerable Buddhist clergy. A look at the Battambang Regional Museum. Night at the hotel.

Included meals: breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Days 3 : Battambang – Siam Reap

(170km/ 7h Inland waterways)

Departure for Siem Reap by boat (6 to 7 hours of navigation), if the water level allows it, or by road. Along the Sangker River, discover floating villages and ancient fishing techniques. Picnic lunch at the Black Wood pagoda. Crossing the immense Tonle Sap Lake: this inland sea, whose annual flood regulates the life of the Khmer people, was declared a biosphere reserve by UNESCO in 1997 because of the incredible diversity of its ecosystem. Arrival in Siem Reap at the end of the day, transfer to the hotel. End of the excursion.

Included meals: breakfast, lunch

- Excursion to the Banteay Temple Srei- la "City of Women"

From Phnom Penh to Angkor

Days 1 : Arrival at Phnom Penh. Visit of the town.

Arrival in Phnom Penh. Welcome at the airport by your guide. Transfer to the hotel. Visit the Wat Phnom pagoda, the National Museum (rich in statues from Angkor) of the Royal Palace, the Silver Pagoda. Mini boat cruise at sunset at the confluence of Tonle Sap and Mekong. Night at the hotel.

Included meals: lunch and dinner.

Days 2 : Phnom Penh – Flight for Siem Reap

(315km/ 50 minutes of flight)

In the morning, transfer to the airport and plane to Siem Reap. Arrival in Siem Reap. Welcome by your guide. Transfer to the hotel. Then discover the sites of Angkor Thom: the temple-mountain of Bayon, the Baphuon, the terrace of the Elephants and that of the Leper King.... Afternoon spent visiting the famous temple of Angkor Wat "the city that became a pagoda". Ascent of Phnom Ba Kheng and sunset all over the site. Night at the hotel

Included meals: breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Days 3 : Siem Reap

In the morning, visit the pre-Angkorian temples (9th century) of the Roluos: the Bakong, the Prah Ko, and Lolei followed by the visit of the most amazing temples of the whole of the site of Angkor, the Ta

Prohm, Ta keo, lost in lush vegetation, as well as the small temples of Neak Pean, Preah Khan, Thommanon, as well as the large pools (the Baray). Night at the hotel.

Included meals: breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Days 4 : Banteay Srei - Kobal Spien

(50km/ 1.30h of road)

Excursion to the Banteay Srei temple "Women's City", a jewel of pink sandstone, entirely carved, dedicated to Shiva and built in the 10th century by King Jayavarman V, passing through the temple of Prasat Kravan built in the year 921 You will then go (if the road allows) to Kobal Spien, "The thousand Lingas river". In the afternoon, visit the sites of the East Baray built by Rajendravarman: Banteay Kdey, Pre Rup, Preasat Khleang, East Mebon. Picnic lunch on the site. Night at the hotel.
